

AGN. NO. _____

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MARK RIDLEY-THOMAS

MAY 19, 2009

The New Heights Charter School, located in South Los Angeles, officially opened its doors on September 6, 2006 with 111 students. Almost three years later, the New Heights Charter School represents a thriving, demographically diverse community that is dedicated to students' healthy development, creativity and learning.

The New Heights Charter School will be hosting its 3rd Annual "Multi-Cultural Family Picnic" at Kenneth Hahn Park on Saturday, May 30, 2009. The school is requesting that the parking fees be waived for this picnic.

I THEREFORE MOVE, THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Waive the parking fees in the amount of $320 for 80 vehicles at Kenneth Hahn Park for the New Heights Charter School's Multi-Cultural Family Picnic, to be held on May 30, 2009.
